Section 7. Terms of Reference

Consulting Services for Developing Eco-Restoration Plan for Eight Lakes identified under Coimbatore Smart City Proposal

Coimbatore, known as ´The Manchester of South India´ is the head-quarters of Coimbatore district. It is the second largest city in Tamil Nadu and is located at a distance of 500 km. from Chennai. It houses numerous textile mills and small scale engineering units; and is also emerging as a hub of software industries. Historical reference of Coimbatore city dates back to 1200 AD. Ruled by Chera rulers, the city was developed as strategic town during the Nayakas rule of Madurai. In the year 1866, Coimbatore was constituted as a Municipal Town with an area of 10.88 sq.kms, and in the same year, the Madras-Podanur rail link passing through Erode was opened thus improving its connectivity to the region. The Coimbatore Corporation was upgraded from special grade Municipality to Corporation in the year 1981 and spreads over an area of 105.60 sq.kms.

The city is traversed, in the middle, by the river Noyyal rising from the Vellingiri hills on the West. It is surrounded by the Nilgiris, a rich tea producing hinterland in the North; Pollachi, and the receiving center for forest production in the South; and the Cochin Harbor in the Southwest. The Municipal towns of Mettupalayam, Pollachi and Tirupur are within a radius of 40 km. from Coimbatore. The climatic condition is moderate and the weather is uniformly salubrious owing to its proximity to the continuous stretch of hills covered with thick forests and the cool breeze blowing through the Palghat gap during the monsoon. The average maximum and minimum temperatures are 39.6°C and 17.3°C, respectively. The average rainfall per annum is 495 mm.

During the Kongu Chola’s regime in 8th and 9th centuries there were 30 lakes/ponds constructed in the watershed expanse of the Noyyal river basin. The nature of the river to get flooded downstream near the Noyyal village and otherwise scanty rainfall typical of this region caused the Chola kings to create this ingenious system of lakes and anicuts. This interconnected system of lakes, their canals and rivulets with the River Noyyal formed an active flood buffer— festooning the course of the river to contain and channelize the fury of the monsoon — as well as also to aided in the recharge of groundwater. This system, further helped improve the agricultural wealth of this region — about 20,000 acre of agricultural land was directly irrigated through this system. Over the years these wetlands have played an important part in development of human history and environment in the region. Over the period of time, these lakes/ponds came to house a lot many species of birds, fish and other life forms in pristine glory. However, in the recent years many of these lakes got filled up. Currently, in the Noyyal river basin there are 24 lakes in Coimbatore.
Coimbatore district has been ranked lowest in terms of number of wetlands in Tamil Nadu. Most of the wetlands in Coimbatore are under severe anthropogenic pressure and threat. Ahmedabad based Space Application Centre (SAC) which is a part of Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) in its National Wetlands Atlas has pointed out Tamil Nadu as wetland rich state since it has 6.92% of geographical areas under wetlands. However, Coimbatore in spite of its network of lakes has 1.08% only. The network of manmade wetlands in Coimbatore is its lifeline. The city has grown around them. Although the wetlands were constructed 1200 years ago, for over 800 years these wetlands served well to both mankind and environment for flood control and irrigational purpose. However, they are now being treated as dump yards and wastelands for the city’s sewage and garbage. On one hand while Coimbatore is emerging as a prosperous city in Tamil Nadu — as one of its first selected Smart Cities, its lakes are dying.

Project Background

The project envisages to inventories the natural resources of Coimbatore’s ABD region, investigate the conditions resulting in the deterioration of the same including the current land use patterns and identify interventions that will facilitate sustainable and vibrant future development of its resources and its influence area (500m either side). Hence under the Smart Cities Mission programme, Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation has proposed the initiative of eco-restoration of 8 lakes in the city, and therefore they intend to develop a Master Plan and a Detailed Project Report for Eight Lakes and connecting canals, with accessible mobility corridors Identified under ABD Area of Coimbatore Smart City.

Objective of the Project

- Redevelop and restore the Eight Lakes Identified under ABD Area of Coimbatore Smart City.
- Revitalise the lakes and surrounding areas of approximately 869 acre into active and vibrant neighbourhoods with recreational facilities that are environmentally sustainable.
- Improve access to the lakes from the surrounding neighbourhoods by providing safe and convenient mobility corridors for all users including pedestrians and cyclists.
- Protect and enhance bio-diversity in the region.
- Explore possibilities for developing tourism in the region with possibilities for commercial development in the project area.

Scope of Work:

The consultant shall include but not limited to the following scope of work:

a) Feasibility Study – The consultants shall perform a feasibility study which will include the following
i. Detailed Site Investigation and Surveys
ii. Water Management Plan
iii. Biodiversity Assessment
iv. Flora and Fauna habitat mapping
v. Traffic Plan
vi. Assessment of land use network
vii. Assessment of Environmental and Social issues viii. Stakeholder consultations
ix. Others

b) The feasibility study should result in the production of master plan for ABD area with geocoding.

c) The feasibility study shall be disseminated to the stakeholders at various stages as mentioned in the outputs of this TOR.

a) Land use classification / pattern in and around the lake area shall be developed in accordance with the existing law.

b) Based on the feasibility study and master plan, the consultant shall prepare detailed project reports, bill of quantities with cost estimates, and ‘working’ drawings.

c) A sustainable revenue model with at least three options has to be developed and suggested by the consultant for the maintenance of the assets on regular day-to-day basis.

d) A tenderable bid document has to be prepared following Tenders Transparency Act, followed by the Government of Tamil Nadu

5. Detailed Tasks to be performed:

The following tasks are to be performed by the consultant:

Feasibility study and Master Plan for Eight Lakes and Connecting Canals, with Accessible Mobility Corridors

5.1. Inception report

5.1.1. Review of existing reports

At the commencement of the project the Consultant are recommended to collect and review all relevant reports, with particular attention to DPR of 8 lakes, Smart City Proposal, City Development Plan (CDP), Master Plan, Comprehensive Mobility Plans, City Corporate plans, policy initiatives and guidance, as well as any other plans related to the study area listed in Annex 1. Relevant state and city departments such as Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation (CCMC) and Public works department can assist with secondary data collection. Based on this information, the Consultant will prepare a brief profile of the planning area including (not limited to):

- Location
- Demographic information of study area
- Major linkages communicating through the study area
- Socio-economic data; and
- Environmental assets, such as natural conservation areas, heritage areas and parks or open spaces.

The Consultant will indicate the spatial distribution of economic activities, important generators of travel demand (e.g. large hospitals, government offices, schools, universities, shopping areas, and recreational spaces).

The Consultant will compile spatial information on plans for other related projects such as existing, planned, and proposed cycling networks, pedestrian networks, and pedestrian zones to understand how they would complement this project. In addition, information on underground utility networks as per information available with CCMC also should be compiled. This information should be mapped using a GIS platform.

Further, the Consultant will study and provide the best practice examples of lakefront, riverfront/waterfront development highlighting key system features, design and integration with NMT network.

5.1.2. Description of the site

As part of the Smart city proposal, Coimbatore Smart City Limited (CSCL) has identified 8 lakes and interconnecting canals, with accessible mobility corridors as the city’s Area based development. Detailed information on the study area is available in Annex 1. For each lake as listed in Annex 1, the Consultant will define the Immediate Study Area consisting of all areas within a 500 m buffer on either side of the lakes and river canal.

The consultants will conduct a detailed study of the project area including study on the existing condition of the lake, its influential area and surroundings, and analyze the land use pattern, location of various infrastructure such as Storm water drains, sewerage outfalls, roads, water supply and for other existing physical infrastructure. Consultants shall also collect the details on the slums, encroachments, religious and heritage structures abutting the lake and also facilities available for disposal of waste, etc., Tourism related information such as usage of the place, tourist potential of the city shall also be analyzed.
All natural drains, rivers, canals, streets, gardens, and public spaces in the Broad Study Area should be mapped in GIS based on satellite photos/aerial photographs.

Map of the Immediate Study Areas for the 8 lakes and mobility corridors along the canals, listed in Annex 1 will be presented in the inception report with all relevant information and data collected from relevant reports (see Step 1).

The Consultant will also present plans for data collection including primary survey formats and proposed locations for all surveys in this TOR. The client must approve the Inception report before the Consultant proceeds to next step within 7 days.

5.2. Interim report

The Consultant will prepare an Interim report for the study area to include results from primary surveys, assessment of existing hydraulics, land development, environmental and social impact analysis, project viability and draft conceptual plan.

The Consultant will carry out the following surveys (but not limited to) to compile information on adjacent areas for informing the feasibility of lakefront development along the 8 lakes and NMT network along the lakes and canals:

- Reconnaissance survey: existing land uses, activities, flora and fauna and transport network
- Topographic Survey of physical features of the lakes, river, bridges and adjacent area
- Survey and analysis of slums/housing along the lakes and riverbank

Bridges if any, including alignment, pier positions and dimensions with lower and upper heights will be included.

The consultant should ensure that the mobility corridors connect the different lakes, waterways and other streets. The project should provide/improve NMT connections and the mobility benefits of the green corridor. It should also demonstrate the other cleaning up mechanisms so that the dirty water does not mix with the clean treated water and same needs to be proposed downstream along with Water Treatment Consultant.

5.2.1.2. Bathymetry survey

The bathymetric map of the lake has to be prepared showing the depth of the lake at different points by means of contour lines drawn for every 1 m difference in elevation. The map must be prepared based on bed levels taken at several points of the lake and not extrapolated from a few spot levels. The spot levels at intersections of 15 m grids have to be factually read and marked on the plan of the lake.

5.2.1.3. Survey of Storm water outfalls and options for preventing the discharge of sewage into river

The consultant shall study the point sources and nonpoint sources of pollution affecting water quality. The consultant shall study on various activities including dairies, agriculture, sewage systems, motor garages, cattle wallowing, open area defecation, carcass dumping, and indiscriminate dumping of garbage. The Consultant should carry out soil and groundwater tests in the waterway before completion and after one year of completion shall help determine the soil remediation treatment if needed to create bio-detention and retention facilities.

The consultant shall map the entire drainage network within the Immediate Study area and its relation to the city’s overall drainage plan to identify the different catchment areas being drained out through different drains. The study of the project specific drain would need a study of the respective catchment area in order to include a storm water plan that looks at opportunities to slow, spread, and soak the storm water.

The consultant from the detail survey should identify the number of sewage & storm water outfalls directly into the waterway. The consultant should also be able to get the quantity and quality tests done, which will help in suggesting mechanisms to either pipe the sewage water and connect it to main drain or treat it naturally on site through bioremediation techniques.

5.2.1.4. Study of lake hydraulic feasibility

As part of topographic survey, the consultant should include land area of 250 metres on both sides of the lake or waterway so as to record for levels, vegetation, structures, services, any surface flows etc. Further the consultant shall study the water flow patterns, including flooding events and records. The consultant should determine water flow capacity of the existing waterway and identify bottlenecks that lead to flooding. The study should involve describing the existing profile of lakes and waterways, slope analysis and levels analysis of adjacent area till 250 metres on both sides to understand the low-lying areas and suggest the flood prevention techniques for flood mitigation. The study should also discuss issues pertaining to water retention and examine options for replenishing water losses due to evaporation, and seepage.

5.2.1.5. Study of various options for retaining water in lakes

The Consultants shall identify and study the existing techniques used in the construction of embankment, describe the extent of land reclamation, quantum of earth-filled required, various options for constructing the embankments and design of diaphragm wall. The Consultant should also do a comparative analysis of available techniques including costs for building embankments, and suggest suitable one for the study area.

5.2.1.6. Survey of land use, activities and transport network

The Consultant will carry out a land use survey for every building in the Immediate Study Area. In cases where the ground floor use is different from that of rest of the floors, the surveyors should make a note. The following information shall be captured:

- Existing and proposed surrounding land use patterns and their relationship to the project site
- Existing land ownership patterns
- Existing and proposed density patterns
- Recent zoning approvals
- Important activity generators, such as shopping areas, theatres, housing developments, and parks, should be identified.
- Information on dead spaces with little activity to be captured
- Survey of street vending and related activities
  - Type of vending and the physical typology of the vending structure
  - Location and characteristics of each vendor
  - Social gathering spaces and other activities found in the public ROW in the study area
- Mapping of all publicly accessible streets and paths in the Broad Study Area.
- Mapping of existing right-of-way for all publicly accessible streets
- Mapping of public transport facilities, including bus stops, bus terminals, and railway stations within the Broad Study Area.
- Survey of slum locations

5.2.1.7. Survey and analysis of slums/housing/encroachments along the lakes and riverbank

In association with Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation, the Consultant will conduct a survey to collect required information on location, type of housing and structure type in each slum along the lakes, waterways and along the streets (if any) including socio-economic profile. The Consultant should also capture information on all illegal structures and other encroachments in the Immediate Study Area along with the number of houses that will be affected.

Additional surveys

The client will provide soil surveys and test reports, geological data, and data regarding water quality and pollution, air quality, river flows etc. as required by procuring the relevant information from other agencies or government departments which is available with them. If any new survey is required, the cost will have to be born by the Consultant.

5.2.2. Ecological assessments

5.2.2.1. Bio-diversity assessment
The consultants shall assess the pristine ecological status of the area based on the past / historical data, and then establish the current ecological status. The consultants shall define the mitigative measures to minimize impact of anthropogenic activities.

5.2.2.2. Flora and Fauna Habitat Mapping
Examining the existing flora and fauna in the area, contrasting this to the indigenous situation and then developing a schedule of preservation, planting and reintroduction of species to recreate the original ecosystem.

5.2.3. Environmental and social screening and analysis

The Consultant will prepare Environmental and Social Impact Assessment Reports in line with the Environmental and Social Framework (ESF) of the Tamil Nadu Urban Infrastructure Financial Services Limited as well World Bank norms.

5.2.3.1. Environmental impact assessment:
The Environmental Assessment Report will identify impacts of the proposed eight lakes redevelopment along with accessible mobility corridors along the connecting canalson local air pollution and greenhouse gas emissions. The Report will also examine additional environmental impacts during construction and operations. The assessment among other aspects will include detailed study of the existing environmental conditions, identifying suitable flora for various pockets in consideration with the proposed plan, soil suitability, etc.

5.2.3.2. Social impact assessment:
The Social Assessment Report will include a screening for social impacts, especially those that will benefit vulnerable populations, including women and low-income users. This analysis should highlight impacts such as changes in travel time, expenditures, safety, and access to services and employment.

In the case of properties that will be affected by the construction of the project, the assessment will identify type and nature of impacts and required mitigations measures as per the ESF entitlement matrix of the Tamil Nadu Urban Infrastructure Financial Services Limited. It will outline a process for public consultation with the identified projected affected persons, public disclosure, implementation arrangements, and mechanisms for land acquisition, resettlement, and rehabilitation. The Consultant will prepare a Resettlement Action Plan (RAP), if applicable, that should take into account of policy provisions and entitlements available in the National Rehabilitation and Resettlement Policy of 2007. The Consultant should explore design options to minimize negative social impacts.

5.2.4. Cost benefit analysis

The Consultant will conduct a cost-benefit comparing the expected cost of system to the total expected benefits, which are expected to include the following:

Evaluate the costs and benefits of the different options, in particular with respect to affordability, likelihood of attracting passengers from other modes and level of government (or business community) subsidy (if any) required, and government payments for fares discounted for social reasons, and recommendations on a preferred option.

The Feasibility study shall indicate the following minimum required benefits and completed with the list of all benefits:

- Reduction injuries, loss of life, and economic productivity due to improved road safety along the mobility corridors.
- Impact of system on environmental quality and quantifiable public health benefits.
- Recharge of the groundwater aquifers of the city
- Strengthening of the Transportation network of the city
- Elimination of flood hazard; flood management
- Recreational spaces, activity nodes
- Beautification
- Efficient use of road space
- Reduction in pollution
The consultants have to provide detailed information of the surveys undertaken and provide the survey results as hard / soft copies to CSCL.

5.3.1. Conceptual master plan — Designs
The consultant will develop Master plan — integrated development — for the Immediate Study Area including Eight Lakes and connecting canals, with accessible mobility corridors. The focus will be to restore the lakes to pristine health, reinforce its flood management capacity and create life-spaces (About 925 acres with natural lake-front habitats with recreational, educational and aquatic facilities). The consultant should come out with a design, where water is retained in the lake throughout the year. Options can be given by the consultant to retain water and maintain levels in the lake. The consultants should develop a conceptual landscape and architectural design incorporating all the design elements contemplated in the project. It shall be cohesive and have an aesthetic vision of the developed park. It is to be noted that the consultants should develop a viable design, such that the park is sustainable with least maintenance cost, and is sustainable on the strength of its design itself, such as, supplying artificial sources of water, vegetation management, etc. The consultants shall follow the GoI norms for water body development and shall prepare designs. The Consultant should prepare design to create non-motorized corridor (mobility corridors integrating all 8 lakes) with green pathways and public cycle sharing connecting vantage points in the area and connected with rest of the city.
