

Annexure 4

The indicative range of stakeholders whose officials and staff that may be invited for Training Programmes being organized by ULBs / Cities for Six Waste Management Rules (2016)

(a) Officials of State Departments and Local authorities

- Public representatives, Corporators, District Magistrate, Deputy Commissioner, SDMs, Chief Development Officers, Block Development Officers, Ward -in-charges, General Managers of District Industries Centres (DICs) etc
- State Department of Environment / State Pollution Control Board / Pollution Control Committee
- Chief Medical Officer / Dy. CMO, Primary Health Centres (PHCs)/ Community Health Centres CHCs /Sanitation Inspectors
- Safai karamchari Sanghs, Unions
- Various city departments such as PWD / CPWD / Roads and Highways departments for debris management and others and village panchayats
- Krishi Mandis /Executive Officers

(b) Industry representation

- Small and Medium Enterprise entrepreneurs / representatives, Industry associations, Managers / representatives of Corporate bodies and units engaged in FMCG products (including such as sanitary napkins and diapers manufacturers) and electrical and electronic goods manufacturers and dealers and traders and trade association representatives

(c) Waste management companies / facilities and waste recyclers

- Managers / Representatives of Solid and other waste processing and treatment and disposal facilities including hazardous waste management facilities, bio-medical waste management facilities, electronic waste management facilities, construction and demolition waste management facilities etc.
- Range of waste recyclers (including collection centres / dismantlers / refurbishers) – formal and informal organizations / slaughter houses

(d) Bulk waste generators

- Bulk waste generators such as PSUs, Commercial complexes / Malls, Multi-storeyed buildings, Housing complexes / Resident Welfare
- Hospitals and Health Care Facilities / Hotels / Restaurants / Clinics and dispensaries

- Retailers / street vendors pertaining to plastic waste generators
- (e) Consulting organizations / laboratories
- Environmental and other management Consultants and engineers / architects
 - quality testing laboratories and environmental laboratories
- (f) Importers / exporters of waste and authorities
- Customs and clearances authorities
 - Importers and exporters of wastes
- (g) Institutions
- Teachers from educational institutions and their administrators conducting environmental management trainings
- (h) Waste transporters and other agencies
- Waste transporters and such agencies
 - NGOs (Environmental and from other NGO associations)
 - Others such as Concerned Citizens
- (i) Central Government Ministries / Departments where applicable at State/UTHQs
- Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change / Ministry of Urban Development / Central Pollution Control Board
 - Ministry of Chemicals and Fertilizers / Ministry of Agriculture / Ministry of Power / Ministry of New and Renewable Energy Sources / MEITY and other
 - Bureau of Indian Standards

Note : It is desirable that the officials indicated as participants may be above inspector level